

Working Families
in Contra Costa
County:

Know Your VOTING RIGHTS

Polls open
Tuesday, Nov. 6
7am to 8pm

Make your plan to vote or vote early by mail

WHEN WE VOTE TOGETHER, WE ARE HEARD

You have the right to:

- ☑ Vote at any Polling Place in Contra Costa County. Just ask for a provisional ballot. If your right to vote is challenged, do not leave without voting! Request a provisional ballot – it will be counted.
- ☑ Vote without showing photo ID, unless it is your first time and you did not provide ID numbers on the registration form.
- ☑ Receive assistance, including curbside voting and translation of materials.
- ☑ Receive a new ballot, prior to casting your ballot, if you believe you made a mistake
- ☑ Receive election materials in your language, if there are enough residents in your precinct to warrant production
- ☑ Ask questions about the electoral process and to observe the election process.

Resources for you, co-workers, family at friends at www.cocovote.us:

- ☑ Find your polling place
- ☑ Sample non-partisan ballot
- ☑ Vote-By-Mail request form
- ☑ Online voter registration until October 22, 2018

VOTE FROM HOME—VOTE BY MAIL!

Vote By Mail: Request a convenient mail ballot at www.cocovote.us. Mail it back by Election Day, or return it to any polling place in the County. It takes 2 stamps, but the Post Office will deliver it if you forget postage. Don't forget to sign the back!

If you did not receive your vote-by-mail ballot, call (925) 335-7800 now. Or go to any polling place in Contra Costa County and ask for a provisional ballot. If you lost your ballot, you have the right to a provisional ballot at any polling place in Contra Costa County. Your vote will be counted.

PROTECT OUR VOTE AND OUR VOICE

Voters' Rights Violation: If you suspect that a violation of voters' rights, take detailed notes (who, what, when, where). Report it to (866) OUR-VOTE. For any other voting questions, contact the Secretary of State's Toll-Free Voter Hotline at (800) 345-VOTE (8683).